Booking Conditions

Our restaurant seats upto 50 people and can be yours for sole use if you book and seat more than 40, if you book for 40 and your numbers drop then we cannot then offer you sole use. To ensure you get the date you require for your party please call us and provisionally book the date. Provisional bookings are held for 14 days after your initial call. We then require the booking form and your deposit of £10 per person (Seniors £7.50) and then the date is yours, without the deposit the booking will be cancelled. The deposit is per person and non refundable so please make sure your party are aware of this before sending booking forms back. If your numbers drop after you have paid the deposit please let us know as soon as possible and no further charge for that person will be made. We will have to charge in full anyone who hasn't let us know 24 hours prior to the function that they will not be attending.

Our Christmas menu will only be available for pre booked parties. Our normal menu will be available throughout December if spaces are available.

I have read and understand the booking conditions and deposits
